Authorization to Receive Monthly Newsletter via Email

We provide a complimentary monthly newsletter devoted to counseling elders and disabled people about their legal rights and options related to aging, healthcare and special needs trusts, to organizations that come in contact with aging issues that can affect lawsuits. Topics may include: special needs trusts; guardianships; probate; Medicaid and SSI issues.

The FCC has created regulations that require written consent in order to opt-in to our newsletter. If you would like to begin receiving or continue to receive our complimentary monthly newsletter and have not already done so, please provide your name and email address, sign and return this page by fax, mail or e-mail to hjosephs@fl-elderlaw.com at our office. Electronic and digital signatures are acceptable. We would appreciate your returning this consent we may assure a timely receipt of the next newsletter. After June 2006, newsletters will not be available by fax.

We hope that our newsletter will enlighten you and the individuals and families you serve. Thank you for the confidence you have placed in us over the years and for your referrals. If you have questions or suggestions about newsletter topics or would like to collaborate on a case, please call Hillary Josephs, Business Development Coordinator.

Thank you.
